

Executive Leadership Opportunity for a Public Health Department located in Central Illinois

Position Focus

- The Public Health Administrator is responsible for planning, coordinating, managing and directing all activities and programs of the Ford County Public Health Department
- The position will also be responsible for public health and/or environmental quality aspects of water supplies, sewage treatment, water pollution, air pollution, noise pollution, solid wastes, swimming pools, recreational areas, subdivision control, drainage, vector control, occupational health, housing, disaster emergencies and health and safety projects

Organization

- Ford County Public Health Department (FCPHD) is located in Paxton, IL, a rural community 80 miles south of Chicago.
- FCPHD is a newly formed Public Health Department that offers environmental health, communicable disease, maternal, child, health, and senior and healthy families' services

Qualifications

- Masters Degree in a health related field, preference given to individuals with an MPH
- Licensed as an Illinois Environmental Health Practitioner
- Experience as a senior health care executive/administrator preferred

For more information or to apply for this position, submit resumes to:

For more information:

See www.fordcounty.illinois.gov

Or Contact Chairman Rick Bowen at bowen@fordcounty.illinois.gov

To apply for this position, submit resume by March 15, 2014 to:

Ford County Board / Ford County Public Health Board
200 W State Room 101
Paxton, IL 60957